The acclaimed Portuguese duo of singer Luís Peças and organist João Santos come to Aldenham School to perform in concert with students as part of their debut tour to the UK. They'll be performing familiar works by Bach, Handel, Vivaldi and Purcell; madrigals and songs by Spanish and Portuguese composers which will be new to British audiences; and some well-loved pieces by Schubert and César Franck.

This promises to be an enchanting evening of pure pleasure that will banish any lingering winter chill. Please come to share it.
