Report

The Under 13 A squad were up against Parmiter's for the final round of the competition. The loss means that the boys don't go through, but they showed great spirit and enthusiasm for the game.

The first, and third players went out in quick succession, but Sam Spalter put up admirable resistance, winning four games out of the 10. Miles brought home a much needed victory against their fourth player, ensuring the match was still alive as they went into the doubles phase. A double win would have forced the match into a championship tie-break. Both pairs fought valiantly in the wind and rain, keeping the scores level but eventually losing their set tie-breaks, meaning we had lost the round 10 points to 2.

A big thanks goes to the boys for their willingness to participate and the good news is that there is a lot of enthusiasm and talent to be channelled, and I am certain with a bit of extra training these boys will be back next year with a vengeance.
