Report

In an epic battle which went on for the best part of two hours, the Aldenham under 13 B's verses Watford Boys was a thrilling match. Despite losing three of the four singles rubbers we drew the match 6-6 due to both Aldenham pairs winning their doubles sets.

Jordan Matock-Henderson won as number one seed 6-4 and Berg, Wolmark and Chu lost 6-1, 6-0 and 6-2 respectively. When working together however the boys played much better and both the double rubbers went 6-4 to Aldenham. The final set of Matock-Henderson and Berg forcing a championship tie break.

As the pairs had to be different from the original pairings, Matock-Henderson and Wolmark were selected. It went Aldenham's way initially then Watford managed to string several points together leading 9-3 at one stage. Aldenham with their backs against the wall started to pull out some great shots but with no margin for error, the tie went to Watford with the final tie-break score line of 10-7.
